2. It will be seen from the Dy: Comrs letter that Nagregowda is dead; that deposits to the aggregate of Rs 15000/- have been received in the Treasury till now; and that his heir and Executor have agreed to make up the balance of Rs 9000 early.

3. The Dy: Comr reports that the endowment intended by Nagregowda for the benefit of his chattram near Chickanahalli and charities associated therewith, viz., a School and Boarding House for the agriculturists of the country, is proposed to be utilized by his heir Annaiya and Executor Munilingiah wholly for the benefit of the school, which is proposed to be developed into a regular School of Agriculture.

4 A detailed scheme for the establishment and working of the proposed School of Agriculture has been promised to be submitted separately.

5. As for the upkeep of the chattram and grant of Sadavarth to travellers, the Dy: Comr states that an applica- This

Further the Govt. have accepted the deposit for a declared object. So long as the object does not fail, it is perhaps not incumbent upon Govt. to see that the declared intention of ~~Govt.~~ the donor is respected. It would no doubt alter situation, if Lyngwdoh himself changed his mind later as in that case it may perhaps be viewed that the trust was still inchoate

2. The point for consideration and orders now is, whether the interpretation put by the executor on the Agregowda's will in the matter of utilization of endowment interest, may be accepted especially in view of the fact that Govt. orders accepting the endowment of Agregowda for the benefit of the Agrl. School established at Chikkanahalli in the Sira Taluk, have issued in the Agril and Industries Dept. of the office -

11-1-19 11.1.1923 The acceptance of the Deposit in 1911 was for the object of distribution of alms to travellers at the Chatram. Para 1 of Resolution 13 of the Agrl. Cee quoted in the Go of 1916 clearly indicates the change of object as having taken place subsequent to Mr Agregowda's death. In para 6 of the will, (G 12.5.10) it is clear that a "paka sala" was intended to be established in the Chatram and after the expenses of the Mandi etc were defrayed, "Seeda" should be distributed - The pet. of Nov 1910
